

ENGAGING EMPLOYEES SEMINAR

Please Join Us For HOW TO CREATE A HIGH PERFORMANCE CULTURE, PART II

Tuesday, September 27, 2011
11:30 am - 2:00 pm
Orlando Museum of Art
2416 North Mills Avenue
Lunch Provided

Winning Work Teams, Inc

Rick Larson, J.D. has held key senior level Human Resources leadership roles within the entertainment and hospitality industries. He is a member of the Florida and Nevada Bars and is active in the Employment & Labor Law Section of the American Bar Association. Rick is an instructor for the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) certification programs offered to rising professionals by the University of Central Florida.

Christina Bolling has worked in the Hospitality industry for over 14 years. Her Human Resources background includes working for small privately owned companies, international entertainment organizations and startup companies. She has over twelve years of focused HR experience, with an expertise in building effective business partnerships to meet organizational goals.

Employee Engagement Strategies

How would your business and your bottom line benefit if you unleashed the full potential of your workforce?

An effective employee engagement system can be a low cost/high yield way for you to accomplish better results.

Learn strategies to:

Reduce Turnover
Increase Productivity
Build Brand Awareness
Take the Leadership Role

Lead the way to positive change!

This Program has been submitted to the HR Certification Institute for review.*

R.S.V.P
by September 20th
Vicki Eckrich
407-849-0333

vickie@eidsoninsurance.com

BRINGING YOU THE RESOURCES TO BE SUCCESSFUL AT ALL LEVELS OF ENGAGEMENT.

www.eidsoninsurance.com

2807 Edgewater Drive
Orlando, Florida 32804